

Discussion Questions:

1. Read the whole chapter of Isaiah 55. What are some of the ways that Israel sought to find satisfaction in life?
2. What are God's people today tempted to pursue to experience satisfaction in life?
3. What is Isaiah communicating about God in this chapter?
4. What teaching about the Lord in the message this morning encourages your heart?
5. Isaiah 55:6-9 is a call to repent and turn to the Lord. What does that look like in your life?
6. What is a take-away for you from the message or this passage?

Next Steps:

1. If you would like to become a follower of Jesus, please let us know. Pastor Jon will be in the room behind the Welcome Center after the service.
2. If you are interested in baptism, let Pastor Jon know in person or email him at pj@fbclowell.org.
3. Consider joining an elective. They meet most Sundays at 11am.
4. Read the Bible with us to know God and respond to Him! Below is our current schedule.

But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth.
-Isaiah 53:5-7 (NIV)
