Discussion Questions:

1. "You have to share" is a command that means, Relationships matter more than stuff. How have you seen or experienced this in your own life? When was a time that you "had to share," that is, give something up for the sake of a relationship?
2. "Ask nicely" means that our words matter. Proverbs teaches that words can cause harm or bring healing. What are some reasons that it is difficult to control our tongue?
3. "Say you're sorry" means that we have to admit when we are wrong. How has your life personally been affected by either doing this or failing to do this?
4. "Be careful" is a reminder to guard our heart to ensure that we are trusting the Lord each and every day. At a practical, day-to-day level, describe what it looks like to trust the Lord.
