

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Do-Over

Genesis 9:18-11:9

Big Idea: I need more than a second chance; I need a last Adam Savior.

Outline:

1. Noah's New Creation

2. Curses and Confusion Corrupt the New Creation

3. The Last Adam's New Creation

Discussion Questions:

1. What parallels do you see between Noah and Adam?
2. Why do you think Ham's actions and attitude were treated so severely by Noah? What warnings about the nature of sin are in this passage?
3. How can we show similar grace toward the shame of others that Shem and Japheth showed toward their father? (See Galatians 6:1-2, 1 Peter 4:8).
4. Do the curses on Canaan apply to anyone living today? What difference (if any) does our ethnic heritage make in how God sees and saves us?
5. What parallels and differences do you see between Adam and Jesus? (See Romans 5:12-21, 1 Cor 15:21-22, 45-49)
6. How is God's plan of salvation through Jesus greater than a mere second chance or "do-over"?
7. The themes of "shame" and "curses" are part of Genesis 9 narrative. How do these themes relate to the gospel of Jesus?
8. What hope does it give us to know we are a new creation (2 Cor. 5:17)? ...to know that a new creation is coming (Rom. 8:22-30)?
