

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

Our Failure and God's Faithfulness

Genesis 20:1-18, 21:22-34

Big Idea: When we fail again, God is faithful again and gets us back up again.

Outline:

1. For Abraham's Failure Again, God Forgives Again (Gen. 20:1-18)
 - a. Abraham's Failure of Fear over Faith
 - b. God's Faithfulness to Restrain through Providence and Warning
 - c. Abraham's Failed Excuses
 - d. God's Faithfulness to Forgive and Get Us Back Up
2. For God's Faithfulness Again, Abram Worships Again (Gen. 21:22-34)
 - a. Abraham's Opportunity for Failure Again
 - b. Abraham's Episode of Failure Becomes an Opportunity for Growth and Worship

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever had a feeling of Déjà vu? How would you describe it?
2. How might Genesis 20-21 feel like déjà vu for Abraham and Sarah?
3. What are some differences about this episode of Abraham's failure from the earlier episode in Egypt in Genesis 12?
4. God intervenes in a dream to spare Abimelech and Abraham from even greater disaster. Is there a time in your life when God kept a bad situation from getting worse?
5. Why do you think we tend to make the same sinful mistakes again and again? What can we learn from Abraham making the same sinful mistakes again?
6. Abraham lists some excuses for his sin. What are some excuses that we tend to make for our sinful choices?
7. How does 1 John 1:9 relate to this episode in Abraham's life?
8. Is there an episode of your life marked by failure? How does this passage shift your perspective on that part of your life?
9. Genesis 21:33 calls God "the Lord, the everlasting God." How has God demonstrated this attribute to Abraham and Sarah in this passage? How has God demonstrated this attribute in your own life?