

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?

Genesis

God's World. God's Story.

A Forward-Looking Faith

Genesis 23

Big Idea: My faith looks forward to a life beyond in a better land.

Outline:

1. Abraham's Faith Looking Forward (Gen. 23)

- a. Past the Pain of Death
- b. To God Preserving Big Promises
- c. With Little Steps of Faith

2. A Life Beyond in a Better Land

- a. Shouting A Bodily Resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33)
- b. Reading my Bible Like Jesus
- c. Seeking a Heavenly Country (Hebrews 11:8-16)
- d. Living for My Best Life

Discussion Questions:

1. Genesis 23 at first might seem to have very little relevance to the big story of Genesis or to our lives. Why is this chapter included in Genesis and how might it be “profitable” for the Christian (2 Tim. 3:16-17)?
2. Have you ever had an existential crisis thinking about death and what comes after? How can a Christian deal with thinking about death?
3. Is it wrong to mourn the death of a loved one? How can Christians mourn in the face of death? (See Genesis 23:1-2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, John 11:21-26, 33-36)
4. Genesis 23 doesn’t specifically mention heaven, the afterlife, or a resurrection when Sarah dies. Why do you think the narrator of Genesis would leave out these important details?
5. What can we learn from Jesus’ interpretation of the Old Testament in Matthew 22:23-33? Specifically, how can we read the OT like Jesus?
6. What are some passages of Scripture that teach about heaven, the resurrection, and/or eternity? What promises do we have to look forward to from these passages?
7. How can you live with heaven and our future resurrection in mind today?
8. Should the Christian expect to have “your best life now”? Why or why not?