

The Inseparable Love of God!

Sept. 13, 2020 – Romans 8:31-39
Pastor Jon Pickens

Romans 8:31-39

31 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? 33 Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. 34 Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died--more than that, who was raised--who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? 36 As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered." 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

-Romans 8:31-39

Notes:

The Point: You're a beloved victor in Christ!

- Implication 1: This truth should drive your walk.

- Implication 2: This truth should motivate our worship.

Questions

1. Paul lists some things that cannot separate you from God's love through Christ. What specific things in your life could you add to that list?
2. Has God's love for you ever seemed hidden? In what ways does this passage bring you hope?
3. How can the truth that you are a beloved victor drive the way you live your life the week?
4. How will this truth affect the way you worship?

Next Steps: August Reading Plan (Week 2)

Day One: Revelation 1
Day Two: Revelation 2
Day Three: Revelation 3
Day Four: Revelation 4
Day Five: Revelation 5

Memorization Tip:

Re-HEAR-sal: To rehearse something is to go over it again and again. Do this aloud so that you can HEAR the verse. This method is extremely helpful when memorizing larger passages of Scripture.

Next Week's Sermon: Romans 9:1-13

September Scripture Memory:

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? 36 As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered." 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
