

Kingdom Work in Small Steps

Mark 9:38-41

Big Idea: Kingdom work is a significant calling accomplished through small steps of kindness.

Application for Moms: Being a Christian mom is a significant calling accomplished through small steps of kindness.

Outline:

1. The Significant Calling of Kingdom Work

- 1) “Mighty Works” Done for a Big God with Significant Rewards
- 2) Motherhood is a Significant Calling and Kingdom Work

2. Kingdom Work in Small Steps of Kindness

- 1) The Problem of Feeling Overburdened and Insignificant
- 2) Everyone is Invited to Contribute to the Kingdom
- 3) Even Small Acts of Kindness have Lasting Reward in God’s Kingdom

Discussion Questions:

1. In what ways is living for Christ a significant or high calling?
2. In what ways is motherhood a significant calling? Does it make sense to call motherhood a “kingdom work”?
3. Have you ever felt over-burdened in the Christian life and insignificant in God’s eyes? How can this passage help someone with this struggle?
4. How should we think about eternal rewards in the Christian life?
5. What small step of kindness can you look to take in the upcoming week (like giving someone a cup of water)?
6. Take some time to acknowledge mother’s day with thankfulness and prayer. How can we show thankfulness to the mothers in our lives and in our FBC family? How can we pray for the mothers in our lives and in our FBC family?
